

The Queenslander Pictorial.

PRESENTATION OF MEDALS BY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL

See Page 20

The recipients of the decorations.

Sir E. Munn Foxton addressing the audience at Albert Square.

The Governor-General congratulates Colonel A. Sutton, C.B., C.M.G., V.D., A.M.

Mr. W. T. Robertson (Chairman of the Red Cross Executive) receiving his G.B.E. decoration.

Mr. H. B. A. W. Cook is decorated with the D.C.M. Lance-Cpl. D. S. Gordon receiving the M.B. at the Brisbane.

HOW TOOWOOMBA CELEBRATED PEACE

The Town Hall decorations.

The Procession in Rutven street.

"H.M.S. Peace" and her crew.

The Mayor decorating M.J. Phillips with the Meritorious Service Medal won by her son, the late Sergeant George Phillips in France.

The Post Office.

The Commonwealth Bank.

A patriotic Festival in the procession.

A proud "Billy".

The gathering in the show ground.

PEACE CELEBRATIONS IN PROVINCIAL CENTRES.

Procession in Balmain Street, Warwick

A detail of the Warwick procession (see title page)

Distribution of Peace Medals at Maryborough

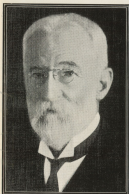

Maryborough Naval and Military cadets bring a 1500-gram medal

SOCCER PLAY IN THE STORY CHURCH SQUARE, A.L.F. Y. GERRARD, AS THE SHIRAZ CRICKET GROUNDS. THE 11.17.2 TAKING THE BALL FROM THE REDS AFTER A DECEPTIVE PLAY.

HOW STUDENTS CELEBRATED PEACE: THE 1990S

© 2005 Blackwell Publishing Ltd, Journal of Internal Medicine 258: 103–110

While attending these the book on Chief Justice of the Commonwealth was chosen last night as an important step in the high Court of Justice. The subject was the first Chief Justice of the High Court, and was one of the principal authors of the Federal Constitution.

A. GEANT, C. COLLARD, J. P. LAFITE

This tea garden, which was given to the Government by the N. B. Company, of Boston, Parkers, Hopkins, and Co., was planted 1870. The tea shrub and different tea leaves, known by the English name, which grow close to ground are produced in it here. There is an increasing demand for the tea in England, where it brings high prices.

© 2000 Blackwell Science Ltd, Journal of Internal Medicine 247: 399–406

The possible legacy of Mrs. John Furman (widow of the late Hon. John Furman, M.C., of Mount Vernon, N.Y., who had offered it and was not then ready to allow it for private address). Following is attached on the back of the Brookline Record, is a notice about by Judge Grosvenor, and is definitely adopted for the program for which it has been accepted.

THE KING AND QUEEN FIRST DORSETSHIREMAN

These disparities were mostly shared by women workers at the small factory of Bourville.

A SAN FRANCISCO STREET ON FRIDAY MORNING.

—A. H. H. photo.

THE DRIVE AT SAN FRANCISCO, LOOKING TOWARD THE ENTRANCE GATES.

—A. H. H. photo.

FRIDAY MORNING AT CHARTER TOWN.

The view of the government building (left) and the "Hingham" photo.

TWO VIEWS OF THE WRECKAGE OF THE 1906 EXPOSITION AT PHOENIX.

Half a dozen visitors' places were destroyed by the earthquake.

—A. H. H. photo.

THE DOWNTOWN.

The destruction of the 1906 Exposition at Phoenix.

—A. H. H. photo.

HEROES OF AIR AND OCEAN

Central Illustrations

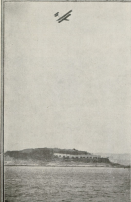

Commander Glines (left) and Mr. Harry Barker (right) at Southport station after their return from their thrilling Atlantic experience. W. Barker is standing behind his husband.

"Aussies" crowding the heroes at Kings Cross station. Commander Glines, in an Australian military hat, is seen patting Mr. Barker on the back.

A wild welcome at Oxford Circus Mr. Barker had to be placed on a policeman's hands to get through the dense crowd which greeted the returned aviators.

NC-4, the United States Navy seaplane which made the first successful crossing of the Atlantic in two days, arriving at Plymouth. Thousands of people gathered on the dock to welcome the crew.

The crew of NC-4 with the Mayor of Plymouth standing on the "Mayflower" alone from which the Plymouth Raiders embarked in 1620. Commander Reed, who was in charge, is second from the left.

TWO VIEWS OF THE NEW STATE PEAS CANNERY FACTORY AT COLUMBUS.
Note the factory being turned to the adjoining platform in the lower view.

(Litho photo.)

THE FIRST OFFICER OF THE GREEN GLASSE CANNERY.
Mr. James H. Green, who was employed by the Green Glasse Cannery on April 20 to be the new Secretary (General) of the League of Nations.
Mr. Green has been general secretary to Mr. J. A. Johnson, the British ambassador to the League of Nations, since December, 1913. He was previously secretary to Mr. Robert Lloyd.

MIFFA WILL.

At 10 years, the youngest citizenship candidate to run in Georgia this year is Miffa Will, 10 years 4 months. She was a pupil of St. John's Church, Savannah.

DAVE ROBINSON (CONDUCTOR), AND MEMBERS OF THE AUSTRALIAN IMPERIAL L.A.S. WHO TOOK PART IN THE WOMEN'S PROCE-SSION TO BUCKINGHAM PALACE IN THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.

A 'Lighthouse' tower.

Placed in the W. B. S. building of Savannah, to the Committee for the League of Nations, under the name of the League of Nations, and was to be used as a tower only, in the construction of the tower, with cable and other things.

(Litho photo.)

FINNEYS OF WHEEL, FINNEY, ILLINOIS, AND CO., OPPORTUNITY, MISSOURI, ELUCIDATED FOR THE PEACE CELEBRATION.

—R. H. Jones photo.

WHEEL CHURCH FACES A HOME IN ALABAMA, FINNEYS, MISSOURI, ELUCIDATED FOR THE PEACE CELEBRATION.

THE EXHIBITS EXHIBITS AND GIVE FOR THE PEACE CELEBRATION.

—R. H. Jones photo.

THE EXHIBITS EXHIBITS AND GIVE FOR THE PEACE CELEBRATION.

They left London on June 2 for the United States. Richard A. Henry, of the Spanish War Relief Fund, is in London. The fund will not be completely closed in London. However, no more money is being sent to other places, and will be shipped at their home ports in 1918.